

Alexis Scurry, Vice Chair

Alexis W. Scurry serves as the Vice Chair of KHSC. She is the Volunteer Recruitment and Training Manager for Richland County Court Appointed Special Advocates in Columbia, SC. She has seven years of experience in coalition building, sustainability, community engagement, curriculum and training implementation and child abuse and neglect. She received her Bachelors in Family and Consumer, with a specialization in Youth Issues, from Winthrop University in Rock Hill, SC.

Mrs. Scurry is passionate about helping others and becoming a change agent, she enrolled and graduated with her Masters of Social Work from University of South Carolina. Alexis is the proud wife of Embre Scurry and even more proud mom to baby girl, Aleisa Scurry.

Kindred Hearts
of South Carolina